

WHAT'S UP?

November, 2008

TRIPS:

Gail Faber & Pat Weik drives up to Lake Tahoe about once a month to check out the bears and coyotes. Now that it's getting colder, they love the big cheery fires in the fireplace and the cold temperatures at night.

Lynne Heyne & Marilyn Thelen recently traveled to Washington DC with their husbands on a retired teachers. Sounds like fun!

Bobbie Mortensen had her first grandchild (girl) who was born November 13. Congrats!

Roseann Krane just returned from Turkey, Greece, Italy, and Egypt and had a great time!

Jackie Adams went on an Elderhostel to tour Savanna, Georgia. She said it was a wonderful way to see historic Savanna and learn some history. She should apply for an Elderhostel grant from Chi State. :-)

Isabelle Zamanian took a trip to South America, Iguzu Falls. Now that sounds interesting!

FAMILY:

Ann Schinske is excited about being a grandparent for the second time in late April.

Donna Bell is enjoying retirement. She is letting her hair go gray and says it's wonderful to not have to color it. Ah, freedom!

Carmen Curtis is feeding 23 family members for Thanksgiving. She will sure need a big turkey!

Carol Rowley is having all of her family at home for Thanksgiving, but Sydney Allison is traveling to Colorado for Thanksgiving and celebrating her daughter's mother-in-law's 90th birthday.

Pam DeBernardi is hosting Thanksgiving for her daughter's in-laws & the last count was 24. A brave woman!

HEALTH ISSUES: Sue Smith was present at our meeting, It was so good to see her looking so well. We're so glad to have you back!

Joan Knowles is holding her own. Many of you have visited and sent flowers. Keep her and her family in your prayers!

Stephanie Brown-Myers is getting better every day since her surgery. She is all taken care of food-wise, but may need rides to doctor's appointments and Physical Therapy. Thank you in advance, for helping her with that.
