

Mission Statement: To promote professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education.

JANUARY 2011, VOLUME 24

ANN STRUTHERS, V.E.S.T.I.A

At our January meeting of Zeta Zeta Chapter, we welcomed Ann Struthers, a Volunteer Program Coordinator for Contra Costa County Employment and Human Services. She spoke about VESTIA (Volunteer and Emergency Services Team in Action) which a non-profit organization associated with Social Services. They are distributing the backpacks that ZZ puts together two times a year for needy children.

LORRAINE KAUFMAN

Lorraine has been in Delta Kappa Gamma since December of 1980.

She just received her 25 year pin. Upon completion of her undergraduate work at Cal State Hayward, she was in their first graduating class. Lorraine taught at Springhill and Lafayette Schools, and retired in 1983. She transferred to Zeta Zeta in 2001. She has a son and daughter and is a grandmother, too. Keep Lorraine in your prayers as she battles cancer. She told me to give her love to you all.

SPEAKER INFORMATION:

Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek AAUW Annual Educational Foundation

shares their Educational Fellowships speaker, Tam Ma, who is the daughter of a Vietnamese boat person, is in her third year of law school at UC Berkeley and is a judicial extern for the Hon. Kimberly Mueller, US Magistrate Judge of the eastern district of California. Ms. Ma was also featured in the fall issue of the California AAUW newsletter, Perspective.

Prior to working for Judge Mueller, Ms. Ma was a policy consultant to state senator Sheila Kuehl.

She should be very interesting to have as our February speaker. Be sure to bring a fellow educator who might be interested in joining our group!

FEBRUARY RAFFLE CONTRIBUTORS: Kim Marasco, Georgia Moore, Bobbie Mortensen, Sallie Nelson, Sue Becker, Carmen Burks, Alice Reynolds, Carol Rowley, Ann Carter, and Claire Daly.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

I have just attended the Area III presidents' meeting and again am in awe of the wonderful work our chapter is doing. Lorraine Avery discussed the need to get the T.H.A.T. hours in early this year, March 1st, as she is planning on presenting a representational check for $1 million to State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Tom Torlakson, to represent the volunteer hours Chi State members have given to education over the last seven years. Among Denise Dolan, Carmen Curtis, Pam DeBernardi, and myself we have added 180 hours this fall to the count. Please be ready with your forms for Jeanette Fitch at our Feb. meeting. We have the largest membership in Area III, and Zeta Zeta has contributed almost 3,000 hours in the past seven years.

Area III director, Olithia O'Toole, reminded the group of the great area website, <http://www.dkg-ca3.org> that is so masterfully kept by our own Roseann Krane. She presented me with the DKG resolution acknowledging Zeta Zeta's 50 years, so we will get to have a celebration. At that meeting I opened up our next ZZ meeting to the group so some might join us in hearing about the educational fellow, Tam Ma.

Zeta Zeta is a terrific chapter and I commend your effort. ~ Stephanie

✕ T.H.A.T. ✕

Teachers Helping Another Teacher Program was created to promote Chi State’s visibility by providing support for teachers. Please record and save any and all hours that you spend helping an individual teacher, a particular school, a school district, or teachers in a community, professional development field, or at the college level. Hours will be turned in again the first of March. Copy available at <http://www.chistateca.org> under FORMS. If you have any questions, please contact Jeanette Fitch.

BACKPACKS

Keep your eyes open for deals on backpacks for our spring stuffing. Below is a note from VESTIA

“Thank you so much for another successful Angel Tree year and for your continued support. Please share the following link with your co-workers or friends: www.nextstepcom.com/angel “

Thank you kindly,
