

ATTENTION: March's meeting will be the annual Area III Conference where we will be honoring one of our own. Be sure to go to support our Awardee. You can click below to register. Let's have a great showing of Zeta Zeta members!

DKG CA Area III Conference

March 18, 2023

Oakland Yacht Club, 1101 Pacific Marina, Alameda, CA 94501

Check-in begins at 9:00 a.m. Program 9:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

"Reimagining the Arts"

- Please join us to be inspired by these dynamic speakers and one another! We will experience a motivating, interactive afternoon with these two advocates of art in education.
- In addition, we will honor Chapter Members, enjoy fellowship with friends, share a meal together, participate in a silent auction, and win raffle baskets!

OUR SPEAKERS

★ Shawntay Arroyo's life goal is to advocate for BIPOC (Biracial Indigenous People of Color) individuals and groups within the arts. Through such programs as Art and Writing, Poetry Out Loud, and participation in forming VSAC's Racial Equity Statement, she has embodied the ways in which the arts can change our world. ★ Pamela Nowak has taught at Yuba City High School for 28 years and has enjoyed the collaborative process of developing as an educator and artist in her department and community. She was honored as 1998 Educator of the Year by Yuba Arts and Culture.

In addition to our inspirational speakers and opportunities to engage in thoughtful discussion, your $60 registration includes a lovely venue with a view of the Oakland/Alameda Estuary and Oakland Hills and a delicious lunch prepared by the yacht club's own chef. To REGISTER, choose from our lunch menu, and see the payment options, click HERE ←

Proceeds from the chapter basket raffle support area mini-grants for chapters, student teacher scholarships, and stipends for DKG workshops.

All registrations must be received by February 17, money by March 1, 2023.

Questions? Marilyn Reid will respond to questions about registration at:
marilynreid@gmail.com